

Random Jane Notes

- Put your phones on mute. I got two text messages during the service this morning, but they were just silent vibrations.
- 9:50 the music starts
- 10:05 Peter starts
- During the Offertory we will pass the Peace: acknowledge comments from listeners
- At the end of Announcements Neil will physically have to go to the lap top and stop the automatic scrolling of the slides and officially switch over to Kevin's deck of slides
- Neil – take the practice of Thursday off the website so there is no confusion
- Jane keeps the Sunbeam words up while Suzette gives her children's time
- We are adding Trees at the following places:
  - Tree before the Greeting – Psalm 85 – words
  - Tree before the first hymn
  - Tree before the opening prayer
  - Tree after the Prayer for Illumination (TFWS 2086) and before Sermon
  - Tree after Shalom so that is on screen if any comments come in at conclusion
- Giving moment: Peter to learn all the electronic ways and then the last is "if you are old fashioned like me, just write a check and put it in the mail.
- When Jodi plays the Offertory song, that is the Pass the Peace through the comment box. If it just goes on and on as it does when we are person, Peter states, "ok. It is time for you to go virtually back to your seats."

Add slide: Children so get your favorite stuffed animal to join the children's sermon with a friend

Add slide: Youth Parents: Suzette needs to hear from you!

Add slide (?): Create a Space for this worship service, light a candle, bring the Bible near ...

Add slide: Do clip art with the fancy red circle showing where the Comments box is on screen
